

Global Sanctions Policy

Governments, including the UK Government, use sanctions as a mechanism to pursue foreign policy objectives. The targets of sanctions are typically involved in serious breaches of human rights or violations of international law.

1. Policy Requirements

JDD Consultants takes compliance with international sanctions very seriously. In particular, we will not enter into a transaction if it would breach a sanction imposed by any of the following:

- The UK Government
- The US Government
- The European Union
- The United Nations

The policy applies to all transactions, including products and services.

1.1 Countries and territories that we do not normally sell to

We do not normally sell to:-

- Iran
- Sudan
- North Korea
- Syria
- Cuba

- Russia
- Belarus
- Venezuela

1.2 Countries and territories for which a sanctions check is mandatory

In respect of the following countries, we will complete a sanctions check before accepting an order:

- Zimbabwe
- Bosnia Herzegovina
- Macedonia
- Kosovo
- Burundi
- Democratic Republic Congo
- Iraq
- Lebanon
- Libya
- Mali
- Nicaragua
- Somalia
- Ukraine
- Yemen

Ian Derbyshire

Ian Derbyshire

JDD Consultants